

MOUNTAIN RESCUE

Description, other agencies involved, process...

WHO ARE MOUNTAIN RESCUE?

Mountain Rescue Ireland Operational Map

- Mountain Rescue Ireland (MRI) founded in 1965
- Association consists of 12 mountain rescue teams spread accross Ireland which can deploy outside their areas in support of other teams
- To contact Mountain Rescue, call 112/999 and ASK for Mountain Rescue
- Mountain Rescue is a free service
- The teams rely heavily on public donations and fundraising events with some assistance from the department of transport.

WHO ELSE IS INVOLVED?

MRI teams work closely with:

- SARDA (Search And Rescue Dogs Association)
- Irish Coast Guard
- Garda Siochana
- National Ambulance Service
- Accident & Emergency departments
- Air Corps
- Irish Cave Rescue Organisation

RESCUE PROCESS

- Phone 112/999 and ask for Mountain Rescue
- A garda sargent will take your information and get the relevant Rescue Team to contact you directly.
- Give details about:
 1. The location of the incident (grid reference)
 2. Number and names of people in the party and their condition.
 3. Any injuries and names of casualties.
 4. Phone number
 5. Nature and time of the incident – what happened?

Remember: Plan accordingly and take care. But if it goes wrong, for any reason, call Mountain Rescue.

